new Wines to watch

In the constantly changing world of wines, two hip new brands caught our eye

Little Black Dress

Just as the iconic little black dress is a staple in every woman's wardrobe, Little Black Dress wines from Brown-Forman are being touted as classic wines for women that are always in style. Offering a merlot, chardonnay and pinot grigio, Little Black Dress wines are a fun choice for any occasion.

Tapeña

Inspired by the energy of the lively tapas bars throughout Spain, the Ferrer family introduces a fresh, fruit-forward style of Spanish wine called Tapeña. Available in two tempting varieties, Tempranillo and Garnacha, these distinctive food-friendly wines are turning heads.

spirited trend

With Starbucks seemingly on every corner, it makes sense that the hottest flavor in cocktails is coffee

Patron XO Café

Those who think of tequila as an ingredient in tropical cocktails will be pleasantly surprised by the extraordinarily smooth and sophisticated taste of XO Café. A remarkable blend of ultra-premium tequila and the pure, natural essence of the finest coffee makes this one of the most divine libations around. Excellent for sipping and as an ingredient in a cocktail, such as the Buttery Twist shown here, it is also a unique and delicious dessert topping.

Van Gogh Espresso Vodka

The bold, true taste of espresso in Van Gogh Espresso Vodka gives "after-dinner drink" a whole new meaning. Whether savored in a martini or served on the rocks, this naturally infused vodka is a must for coffee lovers and vodka connoisseurs alike. For true caffeine junkies, Van Gogh offers Double Espresso-Double Caffeine, the only FDA-approved vodka on the market with 35% alcohol and 10 mg. of caffeine to keep you going.

"Traditional Italian" meets "Italian with a twist" and the results are "molto bene!"
