

A miracle on Cathedral Street.

The BSO Holiday Spectacular is back.
And even more spectacular.

It was the talk of Baltimore last year, with near sell-out audiences at every performance. This year, our Holiday Spectacular returns with nine magical shows filled with music, dancing—and joy. The entire Meyerhoff Symphony Hall will be transformed into a dazzling winter wonderland. Featuring the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Jack Everly, and:

- Hosted by acclaimed, award-winning vocalist Sandi Patty
- An amazing comedic performance by The Piano Juggler, as seen on The Tonight Show
- More than 100 singers, dancers and entertainers in lavish costume
- The now-legendary Tap Dancing Santas
